

Myco Hydro Stop Liquid toxin binder

Liquid toxin binder (Myco Hydro Stop) – is a natural supplement developed to control toxins. This liquid toxin binder is designed to protect animals as for all poultry, pig, cows, bulls for inevitably contaminated feed of wide range of molds and mycotoxins effect in the digestive tract which reduce quality and animals mass weight.

Physical properties: dark green liquid by pH 2.5 ±0.2

Chemical composition:

Dextrin – 0,3 %;

Calcium and Magnesium carbonate mix - 10%;

Water – 89,7%;

Biological specifics:

It strengthens the immune system of animals;

It has a prebiotic effect;

It improves the digestibility and absorption of basic ration nutrients;

It inhibits the development of pathogenic microflora;

It optimizes the development of beneficial microflora in the gastrointestinal tract;

It reduces the effect of stress;

It increases productivity and preservation of animals.

It absorbs mycotoxins (aflatoxin, DON or vomitoxin, T-2, zearalenone, ochratoxin).

Usage: use through drinking water, by dilution of the 2 L/1000 L of water

Contraindications: there is no

Incompatibility: there is no

Precautionary measures: When working with this product it is advised to comply with personal hygiene standards. Do not use if package is damaged or contaminated.

Package: prepackages of 10, 20 and 1000 liters. The containers are labelled by indicating the product's name, manufacturer, product's ingredients, its purpose, production date, shelf life and batch number.

Expiration date: 2 year from the date of manufacture. Store in a cool, out of direct sunlight in a sheltered, that is not lower than 0 °C place, with the manufacturer's packaging intact.

Produced: by company UAB Florovitas order and recommendations.